Gord Hyland
Calgary's Restaurant Realtor®

Good Day! My name is Gord Hyland and I have been in the real estate business for 38 years. Over 35 years ago I sold my first restaurant. Since that time, I have specialized in a market niche of hospitality brokerage including restaurants, coffee shops, franchises, pubs, and hotels. To date, I have sold over 450 businesses and properties. The majority of these sales were in Calgary, Alberta, however I have also represented and sold businesses in other Alberta locations such as Fort McMurray, Grande Prairie, Lloydminster, Edmonton, and Lethbridge, as well as Toronto, Ontario. I visit 4 or 5 facilities a day, which gives me a good overview of what's happening in the local restaurant scene.

I have been called upon to provide evaluations of hospitality related businesses for court purposes. For over five years I wrote a monthly column in the Calgary Real Estate News called "Restaurant Ramblings". This column provided readers the latest information in the hospitality scene including which facilities have changed hands or are being expanded, which new concepts are coming to town and general news about the players in the industry. I now look forward to sharing this information through frequent Blogs on my new website!

With my years of experience and impeccable reputation I can service your needs. If you are an experienced Publican wanting to sell your operation or expand your holdings, or if you are considering your first move into the hospitality industry, the "Go To Guy" in Western Canada is ready to help you!
